WINDIGO FIRST NATIONS COUNCIL ANNOUNCEMENT

Windigo First Nations Council would like to congratulate Mr. Brandon Hudson a youth member of Bearskin Lake First Nation who recently received the PotashCorp Aboriginal Youth Financial Management Award.

Brandon Hudson, a student at Queen Elizabeth District High School in Sioux Lookout travelled to Calgary, Alberta to receive the award on February 8th at the AFOA Canada's 17th Annual National Conference.

The PotashCorp Aboriginal Youth Financial Management Award was launched in 2007. The award was created by AFOA Canada to address the demand for Aboriginal financial management professionals in communities. The award is generously sponsored and supported by PotashCorp.

The Windigo First Nations Council Chiefs and staff would like to congratulate Brandon on his awesome achievement of this award. This is an excellent example of how the Windigo youth are empowering themselves to achieve success. WFNC encourages Mr. Hudson to continue to strive for excellence in all his education endeavors.
