

- Written arguments were filed with the Court setting out the respective positions of Windigo and NAN, and also Canada, in great detail. Formal affidavits containing sworn evidence and documents were also filed, and cross examinations on the affidavits were conducted over the course of the last two years.

For more information please contact Amy Harris, Director of Communications – Nishnawbe Aski Nation (807) 625 4906 or (807) 252-2806 mobile or by email aharris@nan.on.ca

Susan Vella, Legal Counsel to Windigo and NAN – Rochon Genova LLP, 416.363.7627, 1.866.881.2292 or by email to svella@rochongenova.com.